

What if I stumble?

Im trying to walk with God...

Song released by DC talk in 1995 - the message -

Their are possibilities that personal weaknesses could bring shame to Christ.

11 yrs ago...

it has been almost nine years since i seen my daughters. i have been chasing alcohol and 'love' since that time. i have recently been going to my mom's church and opening myself up to the message i receive. it has been long and difficult road back to recovery. i just put up a facebook a week ago and found two of my daughters. all i can say is our god is a awesome

this is one of my all time fav songs by DC Talk. When I feel like I can't go any more, that I feel like there is no way out. I listen to this song with close eyes and smile because God is good. God will always be there when I call on him, I hear his voice in my heart and soul telling me I am here with you. GOD IS AMAZING

My life was shattered by alcohol and crack 20+ yrs ago I remember listening to this as I'd first given my life to Christ. Yea I'd fell away again since then about 15 yrs ago. Wound up in prison to get out and become paraplegic 2 months later. I haven't walked in over 11 yrs now. But I've since came back to Christ and started my own ministry.

Unashamed Street Ministry.

Just lost my father to brain cancer last week.... This album has been my go to, to keep me straight and keeping on the right path. Love you dad , I love your soul for showing me this side of life I never would've known

God amazes me, i remember my mom buying me this album at 10 yrs old...I didnt hit as deep as it does now...a prodigal son that led a life of promiscuity n a whole lot of drugs and alcohol...im going to bible school across the country in California, me and my wife dropping everything...if u only knew my testimony...my past is so deeply dark, n yet he left the 99 to bring his one lost sheep back...but it took a dui and knocking over a telephone pole to wake up...n it was far from the first time saved from the grip of death, from gangs n selling drugs,numerous suicide attempts by my sisters, one sister gone from a heroin od n a dad that left when i was 12 who died from alcohol...raising myself to wut i thought was being a man, basing it off tupac,eminem,n dmx's lyrics...my whole perspective is so different...i was raised in church...n finally understand what it means to b forgiven n the burden he left took on that cross...i havent felt peace like this for over 16 years

When this song came out, my life was in shambles...I kept praying and going to my church....I wound up homeless, staying at the mission and the park....I was not on drugs or alcohol....6 mos. later everything is so much better, only a miracle from God could change my life into something beautiful again...thank you for this song

I remember when I first got saved I was pretty self righteous about never stumbling and looking down on Christian's that had. A few stumbles later God has proved Himself faithful and I am humbled. Also I don't think blaming Christian's for your athiesm is going to hold water on Judgement Day.

In 1986 A Christian rock singer from the group white heart, pleaded guilty Monday to three sex-related charges involving young girls and was sentenced to 18 years in prison.

Evangelical pastor Ted Haggard was caught in a gay sex scandal in 2006. Haggard had allegedly used crystal meth. Ted Haggard was forced to resign from his church. Following his downfall, His wife stood by Haggard during the scandal.

Jim Bakker was perhaps the most popular televangelist in the 1980s, along with his wife Tammy Faye. That all ended when Bakker was brought down by an enormous scandal that included sexual abuse and fraud. In 1987, Bakker's secretary publicly accused the televangelist of raping and drugging her. After Bakker resigned from his ministry, he was charged and sentenced to 45 years in prison. Bakker was replaced by Jerry Falwell, who called his predecessor, "the greatest scab and cancer on the face of Christianity."

Jimmy Swaggart, a Pentecostal televangelist, got his start on television in 1975. In the 1980s, Swaggart's fall from grace happened in 1988 when it became public that he was cheating on his wife with a New Orleans prostitute.

Josh Duggar, the oldest child of the nineteen Duggar children, eventually brought down the reality television show that had made his family famous. But in 2015, a report surfaced that Josh had molested five girls as a teenager. Josh's family checked him into a Christian rehab facility after TLC canceled their show.

The ex mayor and vp of a bank, in enid pleaded guilty to 33 felony charges and sentenced in 2018 to 13 yrs in prison and 30 years of probation for 61 fraudulent loan accounts totaling over 6million$ was released in oct of last year.

King David with Bathsheba, Samson with Delilah, Adam ate the forbidden fruit, Noah defiled himself, Jonah failed to see Gods plan, Peter denied Christ publicly, Saul of Tarsus watched stephens stoning and lead the mass murders of believers.

What if I stumble, what if I fall?